

Shyam Reddy

Birthplace – Carrollton, Georgia

Hometown – Dublin, Georgia

Education:

Moore Street Elementary School, Dublin Junior High School and Dublin High School.

Emory University – B.A. in Political Science

Emory University – Masters Degree in Public Health

University of Georgia – Law Degree

Family:

Shyam is married to Renee, whose family resides in Augusta, Georgia. Shyam and Renee live in Atlanta with their Walker Coonhound named Peaches.

Work:

Shyam is a business lawyer in the Atlanta office of Kilpatrick Stockton LLP, a large and prestigious international law firm. Shyam:

- Provides corporate legal advice to individuals and small, medium and large businesses.
- Provides legal advice to companies and individuals with respect to investment securities.
- Provides individuals and organizations advice regarding campaign finance law.

In addition to practicing law at Kilpatrick, Shyam has co-led various firm technology initiatives that have led to an award-winning website and an award-winning interactive offer letter. He has served on the firm's Hiring Committee and Associates Committee. In addition, Shyam has served as the Chair of the firm's Associates Committee.

Community:

While pursuing a challenging career at Kilpatrick, Shyam has also devoted much of his time and energy to initiatives that strengthen the entrepreneurial and political robustness of the Atlanta community. He serves on the Board of The Indus Entrepreneurs, a group dedicated to helping and mentoring local entrepreneurs. He helped found and currently serves on the Board of the Red Clay Democrats, a 1000+ member organization dedicated to energizing Georgia's next generation of Democrats. He's also an active member of The Georgia Bar and The Indus Bar and part of the 2005 L.E.A.D. Atlanta Class of Leadership Atlanta.